

Parent Advisory Committee (PAC) Meeting Summary

What is a PAC? PACs provides a formal platform for parents to engage, understand, and inform programming to better meet the needs of children and families.

Name of Center	Date of Meeting

Note: PACs are offered twice a year. The first PAC is due by the end of the first week in November and the second is due by the end of May.

What aspect of programming did you request feedback from families?
Summarize the feedback received from parents.
How might you incorporate the feedback from parents to enhance programming or better meet the needs of children and families?

Note: Submit this form with your November and May checklists and attach sign-in sheets.